DO YOU-KNOW THAT Christmas

IS ALMOST HERE, AND THAT

Brown, Osborne & Co.

Have a few real nice .

JACKETS

That they are real anxious to sell out at . . . . . . . .

New York Cost !

Also, a few real nice---

NOVELTY DRESS PATTERNS TO SELL AT COST,

And a few-

LADIES SHAWLS

AT COST.

DON'T DELAY. The first come. the first served. The Stock of above limited. No fake. Mean just what we say, at - - - -

New York Wholesale Cost.

The following not at Cost, but at a very close profit--our entire line of - - - - - - -

Dress Goods and Trimmings.

In fact, everything in woolen or winter weight Goods must go.

NOVELTY SILKS FOR WAISTS

PRETTY EIDERDOWNS CHEAP.

Have you seen our - - - or Men, Women and Children, including Oneita Combination Oxion Suits for Ladies ? If you have not, come at once and see them. For the next ten days prices in this Department will be SDAUGHTERED.

We would all your special attention to our Stock of---

YANKEE NOTIONS,

And Goods witable for

Silk and Linen Handkerchiefs,

Gentlemen's Neckwear, in Tecks, Bows and I in-Hand Ties. Pretty assortment. Kid Gloves, in sizes from 5 3-4 to 7 3-4, Black and Ton Button and Lace. Ask to see our Imogene and Otters Brands. We guarantee every pair of them to give satisfaction or we refund your money. No better Kid Glove to be had for $1.00.

We have White Undressed Kids for evening wear. Also, Ladies' Castor Kids for driving.

FANCY LINENS FOR CHRISTMAS.

Something to be appreciated.

Fancy Towels, Fancy Table Covers, Napkins,

Doylies, Tray Cloths,

Stamped Linen, &c.

How about a few pairs nice---

We will continue to offer TD

CHENILLE CURTAINS For the good wife. We will sell them cheap.

Our Hosiery is Nice and Cheap.

We have-

CLOTHING

Suspenders, From 10c. to 75c. per pair.

BLANKETS, COMFORTS, WHITE QUILTS, As cheap as you could conscientiously desire them.

Anderson Antelligencer.

LOCAL NEWS

WEDNESDAY, DEC. 25, 1895.

Corrected by Brown, Osborne & Co. Strict Middling.

Strict Good Middling

A happy Christmas to all our readers!

The dealers in Christmas goods have Sweet potatoes are in fair demand in the

The weather for the past few days has been most delightful.

Remember, the tax books will positively lose on the 31st inst.

All business will be suspended in Anderson the remainder of this week.

The City Council has decided to place twenty more are lights on the streets.

bings, remember the poor and needy. A large number of Andersonians will spend their Christmas away from home. Quattlebaum & Cochran offer a house The wedding bells are ringing in every ection of the country. We like to hear

Mr. J. R. Callaham, one of Honea Path's popular merchants, spent Sunday night in the city.

Miss Bertha Sharpe has returned to Miss Lizzie Hand, of Greenville County, in the city visiting the family of Mr. R.

Dr. J. W Marshall, of Abbeville, spent a few days in the city last week visiting relatives.

Miss Annie Mahon, of Williamston, visited friends in the city the latter part

Miss Lizzie Carpenter, of Elberton, Ga., is in the city visiting her brother, Mr S. L.

The weather signals will bereafter be displayed from over the Mayor's office on Brick Range.

The doll offered by Mr John T Burriss as a Christmas Gift was won by Miss Ida Maddex, No. 423 A counterfeit ten-dollar bill was passe urday by a negro.

A five-room house and lot, on Belton street. is offered for sale on easy terms. See advertisement.

Mr. S. O. Humphreys, having sold his possessions in Rock Mills Township, has moved to Donaldsville. "Prices of the "chemically pure" are to be raised at the dispensaries with the be-ginning of the new year. Mr. Paul Divver and wife, of Atlanta, G1, are spending the holidays in Anderson with the former's parents.

A house and lot on Main street is offered for sale on easy terms Read the adver-tisement of Mr F. M. Butler.

Rev J J Neville has decided not to go to the low country to spend the winter, but will remain in Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Herbert Barnes, who were married a few days ago in Prattville, A'a, were in the city last week. Mr. and Mrs. Percy Sharpe bave returned to Nashville, Tenn. Mr. Sharpe's lovely br de made many friends while in Ander-

The attention of the city taxpayers is directed to the Supply Ordinance of the City Council, which is published in another

Mr. Hood is a fortunate man in winning

Nearly all of the Anderson boys who are attending college in distant places have come home to spend the Christmas holidays.

Cotton seed reached 16; cents a bushel one day last week. The competition among the buyers of seed in this city is

The farmers have learned a valuable les son this year in substituting home fertiliz-ers for guano. They should continue the County Supervisor Snellgrove now has two fine blood hounds at the convict stockade. He received them last Thursday from Georgia.

We have added quite a number of new subscribers to our list this month, and we have room for many more. Now is the Married, at the residence of the bride's mother, on December 15 1895, by John M Glenn, Notary Public, Mr. Hugh Nix and Miss Etta Gray.

People should not send packages of any value through the mails without having them registered. There are some rascals in the postal service.

The trustees of the Graded School have decided to open the school on Wednesday, January 1st. Parents are preed to send their children promptly.

Fire crackers and all kinds of pyrotech ever e cheaper this year than they have ever en before, and the small boys are correspondely delighted.

Miss Lula

Dr. J. W Gurley, youngest daughter of is now in this cormerly of Anderson, is not the cormerly of Anderson,
is not the cormer of the co

Married, by the Be. Thursday, December 12. R. C. Ligon, on dence of the bride's uncle. Mat the resi Mr. V. Hal Watson and Miss Manie Ksy. both of Moseley, S. C.

Mr. Fred. C. Clark and family, who have been living in Texas for several years, have returned to their native home in this County and will locate here Their friends are delighted to welcome them back. We have received numerous invitations to eat Christmas dinner with our friends in various sections of the county, and wish it were possible for us to accept all of them, We appreciate the invitation and return our best thanks to our kind friends. We are in receipt of the following invi-tatation, which explains itself: "Mr an Mrs. G. W Grubbs request your preser at the marriage of their daughter, Mase to William Glenn McGee. Tuesday R. ing. December 31st, at 10 o'clock Rantist Church Relian S. C."

Baptist Church, Belton, S. C." The following officers have be to serve Belton Lodge, No 130 the ensuing year: L. E. Carrie, S. W.; P. G. Acker.

Sec. The before the control of the control of the before the control of the control of

Here is the way an exchange understand the new game law: "Book agents may be killed from August 1; spring poets from March to July; scandalmongers from January 1 to December 1, inclusive; umbrella borrowers from February 1 to November 1 Open season all the year round on life insurance agents and fellows who borrow the neighbor's paper."

The Wizard Oil Concert Company opened a week's engagement in the Opera House last night and was greeted by an apprecialast night and was greeted by an apprecia-tive audience. The entire program is ex-ceedingly interesting and was highly en-joyed by the audience The Company will appear every night this week. Go out and hear them, and you will not regret it. Admission only 15 cents.

Mrs. Laura Horton, widow of the late Dr. O. R. Horton, died at her home in Lowndesville last Sunday morning, after a painful illness of several weeks. Mrs, Horton was a daughter of the late James M. Latimer, of Abbaville County, and was about 34 years of age. She was a most excellent woman, and has many friends in this section who will regret to hear of Last Wednesday night there was a bad rear end collision and wreck of freight trains on the Southern railway near Ess ley. Two cars and an engine were emashed but nobody was seriously hurt. Six flat cars were loaded with cotton took fire and were burned. The trains were going east. The road was blocked and the trains were compelled all during Wednesday night and Thursday to run around from Seneca, by Anderson and Belton, to Greenville.

Do not let the old custom of a tax ex tension deceive you into waiting for an extension, because the authorities have ent out a positive notice that no extension sent out a positive notice that no extension will be given. There are some people that do not take newspapers and our readers will be deing a kindness to such should they inform them of the condition of things that they may not be caught and have to pay penalty and costs. Remember, the 31st is the last day. Tell everybody.

The Hartwell Sun, of the 20th inst. savs:
"Mr. Thomas Patterson, who lives 25 miles this side of Atlanta, while on his way from Anderson, S. C., to Hartwell on Saturday, afternoon, according to his statement was waylaid on the highway and robbed near Mr. Millford's place in this county. He was beset by three men, one of whom he throcked down but they closed in on him. knocked down, but they closed in on him, clubbed him to the ground, cutting an ugly gash in his scalp, and leaving him lying bleeding and unconscious"

Washington correspondent News and Courier, December 16: Col. George W. Pratt, who, for the past four years, has so ably filled the position of Assistant Jour nal Clerk in the House of Representatives, was dismissed to-day to make way for a Republican Col. Pratt was appointed from the Third Congressional District of South Carolina and he retires from office with the respect and confidence of those with whom he was associated. It is said that he is going home to go in training for Representative Latimer's seat in Congress

Mrs. Cynthia Roberts, widow of the late Mrs. Cynthia Roberts, widow of the late Col. T. J. Roberts, died at the home of her son-in-law, Mr. J. S. McCully, three miles west of this city. last Sunday morning She had been suffering from partial paralysis for some time, and her immediate friends were expecting her death at any time. Mrs. Roberts had passed her three-score years, and had long been a faithful and devoted member of the Methodist Church. She lived a number of years in Church She lived a number of years in this city, her husband at one time being this city, her husband at one time being proprietor of the Benson House. She possessed many noble qualities of both heart and mind, and was most highly esteemed by a wide circle of friends, who deeply sympathize with the loved ones who are left to cherish her memory. On Monday afternoon the foneral services took place at the Presbyterian Church in this city, being conducted by Rev. G. P. Watson, after which her remains were interred in the adjaining gravevard. terred in the adjoining graveyard.

The A. R. Presbyterian of the 18th inst. Sys: "On last Tuesday at 10 o'clock Miss Syra Kennedy was married to Mr. Jno K. Hood, of Anderson Rev. O. Y Bonner tied the nuptial knot. Quite a number of friends were present. The couple left immediately on the southbound train for the Atlanta Exposition. After spending some days here they go to Bartow, Fla, her hand The groom is the third son of Prof. Wm. Hood and a young lawyer of the Anderson bar. He has a growing practice. Numerous wedding presents were to be seen in Mrs. Kennedy's parlor, some of them very handsome. Misses Nelly Kennedy and Helen Grier preceeded the couple as they entered the darkened parlor, which was lighted up dimly by the rays of a handsome large stand lamp—the beautiful gift of a devoted brother." the Anderson bar. He has a growing

Mrs. John E. Bicon, of Edgefield, will visit Anderson in the near future to organ-ize a Chapter of Daughters of American Revolution The Charleston Post, of a few days ago, speaks of her visit to that city as follows: "Among the prominent women who have been attracted to Charles ton by the festivities this week, is Mrs. John E. Bacon, of Edgefield, Regent for South Carolina of the Daughters of the American Revolution. Mrs. Bacon came to Charleston to be present at the formal organization of the Charleston chapter, the ceremonies for which took place this morn-ing at No. 8 Lamboll street, at the house ing at No. 3 Lamboll street, at the house of Mrs. Arthur Ryan, whose guest Mrs Bacon is. A reception will there be given her, and all honor paid to the distinguished guest. Mrs. Bacon is pre eminently the woman for her position. The daughter of Governor Pickens, she is entitled to every social distinction. Mentally without compare, and suited by her cosmopolitan life of travel in Europe and South America, she fuifils every requisite called for in the high and honorable position she holds the high and honorable position she holds toward the women of her State. Her heart is in the cause of the Daughters of the Revolution; and their cause could surely not be entrusted to a gentler lady, a more ntelligent or patriotic woman.'

The Washington correspondent of the Augusta Chronicle, under date of the 13th inst, writes as follows of a young official who is well known in this section: One of the most efficient men about the capito Mr James M. Baker, of Lowndesville, 3. C., the assistant librarian. The work he is appointed to do requires many gifts, and he has them in high development An extensive knowledge of books of re

Mr. V. Hal Watson and Miss Manie May.

both of Moseley, S. C.

Mr. Baylis Clarke, of this city, who had been in the United States postal service for some time, has secured a permanent position on the Southern Railroad between Atlanta and Charlotte.

Married, on Wednesday evening, December 18, 1895, at the residence of the bride's father, by Rev. R. J. Williams, Mr. F. B. Acker and Miss Mary Mattison, all of Anderson County.

Mr. Fred. C. Clark and family, who have been living in Texas for several years, have returned to their native home in this production.

An extensive knowledge of books of reference is necessary, as well as alertness in an excession of the ference is necessary, as well as alertness in anded by sena ors during the estimated by sena ors during all kinds of information determined by sena ors during the estimated by sena ors during the light and by sena ors during the light and by sena ors during the light and by sena ors durin nded in himself, and a smil in carrying out his fertile ock to his designs intimi

Death of Mr. J. G. Keys, Sr.

It is our sad duty this week to chronicle the death of perhaps the oldest native citi zen of this section. We allude to the death of Mr James Crawford Keys, which death of Mr James Crawford Keys, which occurred at his home two miles west of this city last Friday afternoon at 245 o'clock. On last Thanksgiving Day Mr. Keys was taken ill, and, though he was well enough a few days later to be up, he gradually weakened until he breathed his last. The announcement of his death was a shock to his friends and acquaintances, mann of whom had not heard of his illness.

many of whom had not heard of his illness On Sunday morning at 11 o'clock the On Sunday morning at 11 o'clock the funeral services took place at the First Baptist Church, being conducted by the pastor, Rev. O. L. Martin, in the presence of a very large crowd of sympathizing friends and acquaintances. After the services in the church the remains were interred in the churchyard with the honors of the Masonic fraternity. He joined this fraternity in 1851, and at the time of his death was the oldest living member of Hiram Lodge, in this city. His six sons acted as palibearers.

The deceased was born at Willow Hill form (Theory also as the McChilly farm).

farm (known also as the McCully farm), three miles west of the city of Anderson. on the 26th day of December. 1813, and was therefore 82 years of age. His father, Peter Keys, Esq , was a native of Ireland, and came to this country some time in the eighties of the last century, and settled the Willow Hill farm in 1792 Peter Keys was twice married. By the first marriage nine children were born and by the second five, of whom James Crawford was the eldest. Three of the last five children lived to maturity, the other two being Robert A. and Emina. The last named was the and Emina. The last named was the wife of the late Stephen McCully.

Mr. J. C. Keys was married to Miss Louisa D Lewis, who survives him on the 7th day of April, 1836, and had Mr. Keys been spared a few months longer the aged couple would have celebrated the sixtleth anniversary of their marriage. Their union was blessed with nine children, seven sons and two daughters, eight of whom are living, one son, Peter A., having been killed in a rallroad accident fourteen years ago. Two years after their teen years ago. Two years after their marriage Mr. and Mrs Keys settled at the present homestead, two miles west of Anderson, and there they have lived for nearly 58 years.

He was a large contractor in the building of the Columbia & Greenville Railroad. He never had any political aspirations, and, with the exception of the few years he was engaged in railroad building, gave his whole attention to farming, in which he was progressive and successful. He prosessed a most genial, generous disposit. possessed a most genial, generous disposi-tion, and was ever ready to lend a helping hand to the poor and afflicted. He was well known throughout this section and west known throughout this section and acquaintances.

Mr. Keys united with the First Baptist Church a few years ago, and was a regular attendant and consistent member. A devoted husband, a loving father, a kind, generous friend and a good citizen has een called to his eternal home.

Hickory Flat Items.

Marrying! marrying! and still they marry, and keep a marrying Married, at the residence of N. P. Alvin McWhorter, December 15, 1895 Mr. Wil liam Hunt, of Atlanta, Ga., and Mrs. Sallie Huffstetter, of Pickens County, S. C. Also on same date, Mr. Hugh Nix and Miss Ettie Gray. Both of this county. I am informed that two other couples are to marry next Sunday, 22d. So mote it be.
I say hurrah! for our new married friends.
I wish them a happy and prosperous life.
With the exception of messles and colds,

With the exception of measles and colds, the health of our community is good.
Rev J. L. Mullinix is visiting at his father's, Mr. William Mullinix.
Mr Samuel Taylor visited this community the 8th inst., and left for Southwest Georgia the 10th. We can heartly recommend Sammis to any people or community as an affable gentleman.
If there was any left of the Sunday 'chools of this section I would gladly report how they are moving along, but that cold spell froze them out and nothing has been heard from them since. Rouse up been heard from them since. Rouse up people, that won't do. Messra. Editors, come to the stranger's by way Christmas and see and learn the movements of our "Hades Agent" You may see him for a quarter. It's not that—sell about looking in the looking glass either; it's certain facts. Helio, Mr. Copeland, you and I have experienced something very much alike. can sympathize with you. But those people moving their letters; what about that for peace and harmony? I'm a man that wants to hear both sides of anything, et it be what it may, for that's the way let it be what it may, for that's the way the Bible proves things, so don't deviate from that way, brother correspondents. I'm not accusing anybody telling false. I just throw out these suggestions merely to remind one, not to say that a thing is white when it is as black as ace of spades. My plan is, if you tell a thing tell it all and not just the good part of it. Of course, the maxim is, if you don't say anything good of your friend, say nothing at all, but that won't do every time. Maxims and the Bible differ very much. Please and the Bible differ very much. Please let's have no controversie; for there's nothlet's have no controversies, io.

ing to be gained from them.
Wishing everybody a merry Christmas and a peaceable life, I am yours, Bullger.

Pine Grove Items.

The health of this community is very good at present, with the exception of measles. I think they will be about worn out when they get through this time.

We understand that our friends, Mr W. T. McGill and family, are going to move to Columbia. We regret to see Miss Eva Kay, who has been very sick with typhoid fever, we are glad to say is

The Six-and Twenty Railroad bridge is being repaired by Mr Reno and others.

M. J. went to the Exposition We hope she will send in a full report when she A young lady has invited "Old Joe" to come and take dinner with her X mas and she would kill a big one and cook a little one I tell you that made him grin just to think of it.

"Old Joe" doesn't get hurt every time he falls if he is getting old and tottery, espe-cially when he falls in love with a girl I think there will be a wedding in this community soon, for a young man went to of chairs. There is not any school at this place yet. It seems very hard to get one.

I will close wishing you a merry Xmas and a happy New Year.
OLD JOE

- Four years ago Henry Lewis, a poor candy seller of Brooklyn, found an old lady sitting on his doorstep, and took her into his house, where she remained a member of the family until a few month-ago, when finding herself a serious burien on him, she insisted on going to the poorhouse. A few days ago she fell heir to $300,000, and returning to Lewis' home, she turned it over to him for the kindness

FOR RENI-Dairy farm, one mile north of Anderson. Houses new Good pasture.

John W Daniels. For low prices and fair dealing, try H. G. Johnson & Son.

FOR SALE OR RENT-A house and lot, McDuffle street, near the square. Call at of Harness to arrive in a few

GENUINE GOODS! WELL MADE GARMENTS! HONEST VALUES!

THE BEST CHEAPEST! IF ONCE, ALWAYS A CUSTOMER!

WE have nothing else but Clothing of genuine fabrics on our well-stocked shelves and counters. All our Suits and Overcoats are pure Wool and NO shoddy.

Customers make sure of getting from us Garments warm and healthful, and such as wear perfectly well.

Our Clothing has all the wear in it that a genuine wool you wish to make a Pre fabric can give. Our Suits and Overcoats are---

"EXACT PICTURES OF FASHION!"

What is more, we can fit you as well as the Merchant Tailor, and at much lower price. The difference between our price and our friend, the Merchant Tailor, represents the amount thrown away by those who fail to take advantage of this golden opportunity.

Clothiers, Hatters, Furnishers.

IT is not that we wish to boast when we speak of the fine trade that we have had this season, but we think it the best way to prove to the Trading Public that we are fixed right, so far as Quality, Quantity, Styles and Prices are concerned. We thought at the commencement of the season that we would have a good trade, for we had confidence in our purchases, and felt that we were prepared to succeed.

For the next four weeks we must surpass anything we have ever done heretofore. Our Stock has been well filled in, and we have now on hand more Goods than usual at this season. We have been wonderfully lucky in our recent purchases, and intend giving our customers the benefit of same.

We have made reductions on certain lots of Dress G and they will go very low. We will not ca begin in time so as to let them go. in this department, and it w

In the line of to the rafter

In this practic of PRESENTS something USI

The Bes Wife The The Daughter, The Mother.

The Sister.

Grandmother.

Unc And all the balance of Line of .

this season.

Don't Fail to

IT gives us pleasure of fore you, and say that ou Northern maket, he